

FOOTHILLS FLYER

PUBLISHED SEMI-ANNUALLY FOR MEMBERS OF FOOTHILLS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Kaye Gagley retires!

A few words from Kaye: I'm going to miss my members the most. I got used to seeing them and they became like family to me. I will miss everybody I've worked with, especially Susanne and Regina. I've had a good 15 years with the credit union and M'rcia was a great boss. I'm looking forward to canning, working on my house, traveling and spending time with my sweet husband!

Thank you for an amazing 15 years! We will miss you!

Love, Foothills Federal Credit Union Board of Directors, Committees, and Staff.

School Supply Donations

Since 2012, Foothills Federal Credit Union has been collecting donations from our members and local businesses to buy school supplies for our area school systems. We contact the school and get a list from the teachers of their needs. We purchase the items and deliver them before school begins each year. The items vary, some teachers ask for calculators and bookshelves. Other teachers may ask for the basics like hand sanitizer, folders, and glue.

Thank you so much for your Donations and SUPPORT.

All Foothills Federal Credit Union branches will be closed on Wednesday, September 1, 2021 for training. Our branches will re-open at 10:00 AM on Thursday, September 2, 2021.

Please be aware, due to training, on Wednesday September 1, 2021 there will be a $300.00 daily limit on all debit card transactions. The limit CANNOT be raised during this time. We are sorry for the inconvenience and appreciate your understanding.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021!

We are honored to award College Scholarships to 2 of our members:

Loudon – Maylee Cooley • Lenoir City – Joy Echols

ATTENTION: Our automated system “Teeny the Teller” will NO longer function after August 30, 2021. If you would like to check your balance, please contact one of our branches or consider signing up for HomeBanking on our website at foothillsfcu.org.
